THE HACKLEY
ART GALLERY

The Hackley Art Gallery, Muskegon, Michigan, has recently purchased two oil paintings by distinguished English artists, "Souvenir de Noel," by G. W. Lambert, and "A June Day in Suffolk," by J. A. Arnesby Brown. The Director of this Gallery, Mr. Raymond Wyer, also brought back with him from Europe a large etching by Marius A. J. Bauer entitled "The Prince," and two water colors by Charles John Collings, "Night on the Shuswap Lake" and "Ice Scene on the River."

During October an exhibition of modern Spanish art, brought to the United States by special arrangement of the Chicago Art Institute, was shown in the Hackley Art Gallery. This was replaced in November by a memorial exhibition of works by the late Charles Walter Stetson of both interest and charm.

MICHIGAN STATE
FEDERATION
OF ART

The first annual conference of the Michigan State Federation of Art, which was held in Grand Rapids October 28th and 29th, proved of much interest. The opening address was by Mrs. Cyrus E. Perkins, President of the association. Mrs. James H. Campbell gave a review of the Fourth Annual Convention of the American Federation of Arts, which she attended as a delegate, and Mrs. George W. Stevens, Assistant Director of the Toledo Museum of Art, by request, repeated the address on "The Creating of an Art Museum," which she had prepared and delivered at the National Convention in Washington. Topics of broad interest were discussed, and at the closing session Professor Cross, of the University of Michigan, gave an address on "How to Judge a Picture."
